

Tribal Infrared Timeline: Lummi Nation Projects

2009

Heating Green and Lummi Nation partnered to design and supply heating systems for a variety of projects.

2009-10

Kwina Village Phase 1:
Designed and supplied 336 heating panels and thermostats for 72 apartments.

2013-14

McKenzie Plat:
Designed and supplied approximately 200 heating panels and thermostats for 16 brand new homes.

2013-15

Smokehouse Village Project:
Retrofitted 24 apartments from propane heaters to electric infrared heaters.

2014-15

Kwina Village Phase 2:
Designed and supplied 250 panels and thermostats for 46 new apartments.

2016

Balch Road Project:
Nine family residences retrofit from propane heaters to infrared heating panels.

2017

Whatasen Lane project:
Four single family residences Retrofit from an inefficient furnace to infrared heating panels.

2018-19

Sche'lang'en Village Project:
New 47 multi-unit multi-family project for elders and families.

Tribal Infrared Timeline: Lummi Nation Projects Continued

2021

Redwing Ct. Project:
New Four multi-unit multi-family
project for elders and families.

2021

Cross Roads Project:
Two new group recovery
houses built from the ground up.

2023

Kwina Village Apartments phase three project:
As of 3/16/23 we delivered 160
heating panels for a new apartment complex.

We take great pride in working with the Lummi
Nation's projects and are grateful to be involved with the Northwest Indian Housing Association

NWIHA
Northwest Indian Housing Association

If you have have a new or retrofit project we would love to help you and those you serve.
Contact us at sales@heatinggreen.com

